

Political and Legal EnvironmentThe political and legal environment refers to the system of governance, the nature of the political system, and the legal framework within which businesses operate. It influences business decisions through regulations, government policies, and the stability of the system.

Foundations of Business Operations

